JOIN THE ICOM INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEES!

With your ICOM individual or institutional membership, you can join ICOM's International Committees, which represent different types of museum collections and professions.

Institutions can designate up to three of its employees, called designated representatives, to represent them on International Committees. This means that an institution may choose a Committee, and designate three representatives to this Committee. Or, the institution may choose three different International Committees, and designate the same or different representatives to these Committees.

By joining an International Committee:

- You will receive up-to-date news from the International Committee, and have access to their publications and newsletters.
- You may participate in their annual meetings and other activities, with preferential rates.
- You may participate in the discussions among colleagues of the International Committee.
- You can take part in joint activities organised with other ICOM International Committees, ICOM National Committees and other organisations.
- You can join the special interest or working groups of some International Committees.
